

Bone Print Press

A Nobody's Nothings by Denis Sheehan

boneprint.com

About the Book

A Nobody's Nothings
160 pages-8.5x5.5-softcover

A Nobody's Nothings is a collection of short stories, poetry (not the type of poetry Father wrote to bed Mother), "Brain Scribbles" ramblings, and one comic. Words are fiction and nonfiction weaving stories of screwed up love, sex, self destruction, and everyday life of every day slobs.

Most of content is new and previously unpublished, but some of the pieces are older and appeared in the author's long running zine, Askew Reviews.

Content is mature and not suitable for children or sensitive doodyheads.

About the Author

Denis Sheehan
Single Dad of a six-year-old daughter living on the South Shore of Massachusetts.

Has been publishing/editing (print and online) the movie, music, and book reviews zine Askew Reviews since 1997.

Author of the short run, self published Longsberry Letters, which will reprint in early 2008

Is a paid freelance reviewer for AVN Magazine.

Denis is available for interviews.
Contact: boneprint@gmail.com

A Nobody's Nothings is available for $10 postage paid:

Bone Print Press
P.O. Box 684
Hanover, MA 02339

or

Paypal to boneprint@gmail.com